THE CHRISTMAS BOOK OF THE YEAR

in the Literary Shop

By JAMES L. FORD

The North American Review: "A wholesome astringent quality in these memoirs, an absence of the usual sentiment, a complete freedom from solemnity of any kind, and with all these admirable traits a genuine untheoretic appreciation of sound character and of good work, make the book one of those few valuable contributions which the real man of the world occasionally makes to popular education . . . Mr. Ford's virile and entertaining book is not only a thing of delight for the old and middle-aged, but a work of edification for the young."

Charles Willis Thompson writes: "Mr. Ford is not classifiable."

The Chicago Tribune: "The kind (of book) you take up idly at midnight and the next thing you know the clock is striking four."

Heywood Broun says: "It contains as much interesting reminis-cence of old New York as 'The Age of Innocence,' 'Not So Long Ago' and 'Little Old New York' combined."

Brander Matthews: "Jim Ford knows more sides of this many-sided city than any other man I have ever met."
